The Anti-Slavery Bugle.

MARIUS R. ROBINSON, EDITOR.

"NO UNION WITH SLAVEHOLDERS,"

ANN PEARSON, PUBLISHING AGENT,

VOL. 10.---NO. 35.

SALEM, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, OHIO, SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1855.

WHOLE NO. 497.

the disable in tearly the people paid In any felloweditions, the the privilege in least of disable in the privilege in the in the crous history of servile infatuation, and shows the silence the voice of freedom in the northern porposer which the people wield over their public tion of the Union—to induce the people of the

One point in this most interesting subject should and at London-two slaveholders and one north-crn man who had distinguished himself by de-

ANTI-SLAVERY BUGLE. there was a point beyond which aggression and in- are held in degrading bondage-bought and sold

ANTI-SIA-VERI BIGGIE.

Single Engine Compound to the compound of the compound to the compound not be overlooked. The conference at Ostend was to stand mute, and permit new slave States to be composed of our Ministers at Madrid, at Paris, attress in Congress, while under the protection those slaveholders were willing to tax the people of Ohio. But those slaveholders were willing to tax the people of Our State these twelve millions of dellars to preserve slavery in Cuba.

I can conceive of no proposition more insulting to the independent freemen of our State. It shows them how far unprincipled politicians dare go in their conspiracies against liberty. But here again we see that the condemnation of the President's weed the that the condemnation of the President's easily thousand majority in October last, gave all concerned to understand that e silence the voice of freedom in the northern portion of the Union—to induce the people of the free States to remain silent while Slavery shall destablish itself in Kansas and Nebraska. We are to stand mute, and permit new slave States to tadmitted to the Union, with their Slave represento the Union, with their Slave represento Gongressional enactments, boys and girls are to Gongressional enactments, boys and girls are to free market in Washington City, and publicly sold in the barracoons of the National Capital.

This effort to guide the organization with its intilence to sustain Slavery, appears to me like the

While at the drinking saloon, they indeded to the Union, with their Slave represento gland develop.—Colombian.

New World, prond, ardent, full of falth in his high destinies, will one day gave the Old Warld from to gland imperial tyramny, even if England the United States as out of love for the slaves. It know only tow well how powerful an agrument to the Union, with their Slave represento the Union, with their Slave represento free states to remain silent with each out of feel sales.

The second in command of this mob was a factory land, and, I should judge, a very poor one tory land imperial tyramny, even if England the United States as out of love for the slaves. It know only tow well how powerful an agrument to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument
to know only tow well how powerful an agrument to know only tow well how po cin man who had distinguished himself by declaring in the Senate of the United States that the northern democracy are the natural allies of southern slaveholders." They met by order of the President. They declared in favor of obtaining Cuba, for the reason that she was in danger of becoming free. They proposed to pay Spain on hundred oud twenty millions of dollars in order to purchase it. Twelve millions of that amount must have been paid by the people of Ohio.

But those slaveholders were willing to tax the people who maintain their love of liberty, and they maintain their love of liberty. They is and they maintain they declared in favor of obtain in order to purchase it. Twelve millions of the reason that she was in danger of becoming free. They proposed to pay Spain one hundred out twenty millions of that amount must have been paid by the people of Ohio.

But the Senate of the United States that she was in danger of breaking the proposed to pay Spain one hundred out twenty millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to purchase it. Twelve millions of the Previsional Government to the ceine of the sufferings and debasement of three millions of the sufferings and debasement of three millions of the suffering and deshasement of three millions of the suffering and deshasement of the estification of the suffering and deshasement of three millions of the suffering and deshasement of three millions of the suffering and debasement of three millions of the suffering and debasement of three millions of the suffering and debasement of th

Since I am led to speak of the letter that the that an immence majority among them consider it ate Consul addressed to "L. Kossuth and others as a fital heritage of the past, at which they